

Derbyshire Bus Fares Guide

This page shows typical adult single fares, in pence, between the main towns in Derbyshire, as at October 2009.

These fares generally apply only on direct journeys – where a change of bus is necessary, through tickets are not always available. Sometimes a higher fare will be payable on an express or limited stop service, or on a less direct service.

Fares shown here do not necessarily apply on any particular service; they are guide prices only.

- Return tickets are available in most cases, and are usually cheaper than two single tickets. However, they can generally only be used to come back on buses run by the same company.
- Children's Fares are usually about 50 per cent of the Adult Fares.
- Reductions (normally 50 per cent) are available for young people in full-time education who live in Derbyshire, with a b_line card. Residents of England aged 60 or more, or with certain disabilities, are entitled to free travel at most times; to obtain this, an English National Concessionary Travel Scheme pass such as the Derbyshire "Gold Card" is required.
- Season tickets and multi-journey tickets are available on many services, offering savings for regular travellers.
- Rover tickets such as the Derbyshire Wayfarer can often be the cheapest option for a day's travel involving a number of journeys.
