

Community Profile

This area profile is the first stage in drawing together a range of information about a particular geographical area and its communities. The profile brings together basic statistical and consultation data and, where available, performance information and details about key initiatives in the area. There are 10 sections following the Audit Commission's quality of life themes. The profile aims to provide a more rounded picture of an area than can be achieved by viewing the information in isolation and should be used as a tool to provide a context and overview of an area, rather than detailed analysis of a particular topic or information type.

The Eastern Partnership lies in the east of the North East Derbyshire district of Derbyshire. It covers an area of 3,384 hectares. There are centres of population adjacent to each other in the villages of Heath, Holmewood and Grassmoor. The Chesterfield suburb of Calow lies to the north of the area, which also contains Arkwright Town village. Smaller settlements can be found at Long Duckmanton and Sutton Scarsdale.

A separate User Guide contains a detailed description of the statistics and a guide to interpreting the charts.
