The Swadlincote and District 50+ Forum has 189 members, who aim to:

- develop a more positive image of people over 50 and improve intergenerational working by consulting with youth agencies to establish an intergenerational project.
- recruit more members;
- improve access to information for Forum members in consultation with social services in relation to services provided, and through the use of Gold Card and other relevant publications;
- strengthen links with the Erewash Community Safety Officer and local police to help older people increase personal safety and security;
- consult with older peoples groups in South Derbyshire on working towards an 'Out of Hours Service' that better meets the needs of the 50+ community.

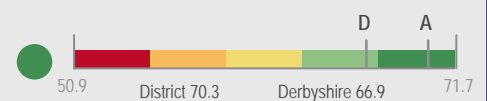

The views of the district Youth Forum on facilities for young people appear in the Culture and Leisure section.
