Welcome to County Hall, Matlock

County Hall in Matlock is a magnificent Grade II listed building in the middle of the beautiful Derbyshire countryside and is the perfect setting for your special day.

The building spent most of its life as 'Smedley's Hydro' - a hydropathic hotel owned by Derbyshire industrialist and philanthropist, John Smedley but has been home to Derbyshire County Council's headquarters since 1951.

The venue is licensed for civil weddings and partnerships and is suitable for small, intimate ceremonies to larger weddings complete with reception events.

The building sits in its own grounds and gardens and has spectacular views over the Derwent Valley.

County Hall is a conveniently located with good transport links and parking. There is also plenty of overnight accommodation within walking distance.

Our Rooms

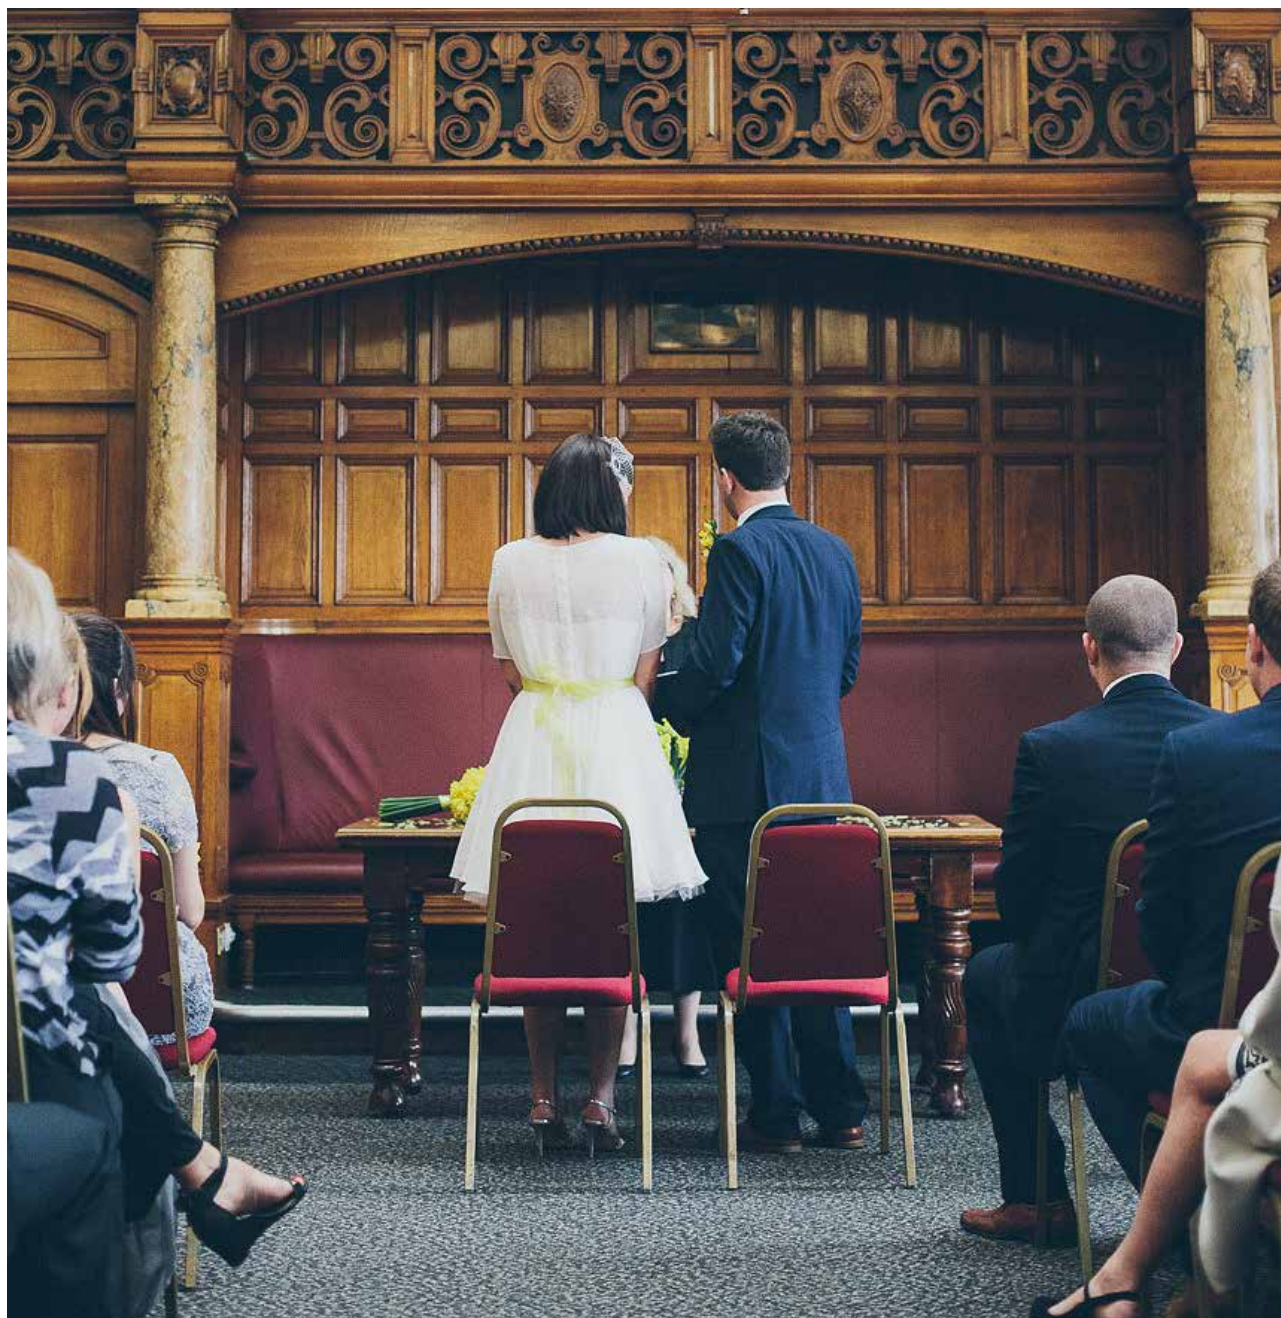

Our three ceremony rooms can be used for ceremonies only or in conjunction with our large Members' Room for post-wedding celebrations. We can offer exclusivity guaranteeing no other weddings will take place at the same time as yours.

Small ceremony room:

Our newly-renovated small ceremony room holds 40 people. It is available at weekends and can be booked on its own or used in conjunction with the Members' Room if required.

Large ceremony room:

Seating 100 people, our large oak-panelled ceremony room provides a grand yet welcoming space for marriages and partnership ceremonies. This room is available on weekends and can be booked on its own or used in conjunction with the Members' Room if required.

Catering

For wedding and partnership celebration events, our catering facilities are available for use and are included in the cost of the reception.

Our functions manager will help you choose one of our approved caterers to provide a sit-down meal or buffet depending on your requirements. Or you can appoint a caterer of your own choice or even do your own catering.

The Members' Room has a fully licensed and staffed bar.

Help with planning your special day

At County Hall our aim is to make to make your dream day a reality. Our dedicated functions team will be delighted to meet with you and help you plan your special day and tailor a package to suit your requirements.

We are completely flexible. We don't sell wedding packages and you won't be tied to a set formula. You are free to tailor your wedding to suit your style and budget. We can advise and give you contact details of suppliers such as caterers, florists, DJs, car hire and photographers.
