

SOCIAL

This is a list of the SOCIAL aspects that DCC may wish to take into consideration when developing the new service specification for low level support services for vulnerable adults

- Employing local people
- Use of volunteers
- Use of apprentices
- Employees that are disabled
- Engage with community e.g. events
- Social isolation – refer to other services e.g. befriending services