Sharing books with grown-ups

Think about.....

- What can the child do now?
- What are the next skills needed?
- Make a plan to help.
- Get inspired, talk to others and share ideas.
- Carry out the plan. Keep practicing. It may take some time but it's worth it.

1. I can hold books, turn pages, and look at pictures. I can stay focused for a short time. I like it when you make the book fun.

2. I can point to pictures when you name them. I can listen to you talk about 2 or 3 pictures before losing attention.

3. I can listen to short stories. I love repeated phrases in books and start to join in with these when you pause.

4. I can remember what happens in familiar stories. I notice if you miss bits out.

5. I can answer simple questions of 'what' and 'who' are in the book. I try to tell my own stories, but still need your help.

6. I enjoy sharing books with grown-ups* and talking about them.
