

Exploring the Rowthorne and Pleasley Trails

These trails used to be the old railway lines that linked the pits in the area. Now you can use them to walk, cycle and horse ride and enjoy the countryside.

Look for wildflower meadows, woodlands, wetlands and pools that are great habitats for wildlife. Shown here are just some of the birds, butterflies and wildflowers you might see.