

Lacemaker Court Day Centre

Offering a day service for adults with dementia, physical frailty or complex needs

Lacemaker Day Centre is a new purpose built Derbyshire County Council day service which operates within Lacemaker Court, Tamworth Road, Long Eaton, NG10 1BE.

The Day Centre offers a high standard of support for adults whose needs may arise from dementia, physical frailty or complex needs in an attractively designed enabling environment.

We provide a service to people from the Erewash Community.

The Day Centre aims:

- To offer the “cared for” person a variety of opportunities and a positive experience whilst away from home such as; reminiscence sessions, crafts, and chair based exercise, cookery sessions and group discussions
- To enable informal carers (family or friends) to take a break from their caring role on a regular basis
- To work alongside local health professionals and the local council to support people to maximise their independence and improve their quality of life
- To provide all activities tailored to the individual
- To offer support to carers.

Criteria

- The service is open to Erewash residents
- The person must have been assessed by a health or social care professional and meet the national eligibility criteria for care and support services.

What will we provide for you?

- We will always treat you with dignity and respect
- Our skilled and caring staff are fully trained in person-centred dementia care, and the centre has been designed to make it an enabling environment for people living with a dementia
- Support and understanding to your carers
- Create a personal service plan tailored to individual needs
- A dedicated key worker to build a trusting relationship and understand the individuals choices and preferences
- Mentally stimulating and physical activities to suit each individual e.g. arts, music, singing, quizzes, gardening and many more.

Our facilities

- On site bistro
- Assisted bath - Equipped with a ceiling hoist, changing table, bath and shower
- We have all the facilities and staff knowledge to support individuals both practically and emotionally to regain or develop life skills
