 	reps for great comments. Jackie is going to change it. A speech and language therapist talked about swallowing problems. We learnt a lot. We watched the choking song video. We will bring it to the next North Board. Tanya Nolan came to tell us about work with parents who have learning disabilities. We will be watching a new video made by women with learning disabilities about breast screening that will be presented by Mary at the North Board in the future. Local Issues and what we have been doing Everyone got into 3 separate groups. Mary talked about Hello Whitwell from the day centre. They went to see Cinderella at the pantomime. They all did Whitwell got talent. Mary is now doing volunteer work at Limestone House on a Wednesday 1pm-4pm. Alan is leaving the day centre and hoping to go to landmarks twice a week. Alan is going to Plymouth in April to the Special Olympics to play basketball. Liam told the group about Bolsover Woodland, they are doing an open yard sale to sell products. Susan is doing a presentation in February on The Rolling Stones.	Jackie Fleeman

It would be good to fill out the survey and tell them what we need. No limits need more time to understand information, they are trying to arrange for a monthly meeting to talk about issues and they will feed back to the North Board. There is now going to be a showing of the pantomime for people with autism in Staveley. They want to make sure everyone feels comfortable watching the show. Luke has asked for bus companion passes to be introduced in Derbyshire. This would mean a carer could travel for free with someone with a disability. Some other councils already offer this. The issue is to be raised at County Board. Any Other Business Peter has got a book called 'who cares' for £5 a copy. There are poems, short stories and drawings in the book. The group felt that if Sargent Stephen wanted to talk to the Board he should ask for an agenda slot in the future.
