

Free Derbyshire Suicide Awareness Seminars

from Rural Action Derbyshire

Increasing awareness and breaking down barriers

This half-day training is suitable for anyone in a public facing or community representative role in Derbyshire (excluding Derby City), and would be of particular interest to those whose voluntary or paid work may bring them into contact with people at greater risk of suicide and self-harm. The seminars are supported by funding from Public Health at Derbyshire County Council. Please note we can not offer free places on these courses to people living and working outside Derbyshire.

For more information and to secure your place on this popular course, visit our booking site at www.eventbrite.co.uk and search for 'Suicide Awareness'. Demand for places is often high. If you do not manage to secure a place on the dates initially released, please be aware that more dates will be made available in due course. To request a place on our waiting list or for any other enquiries email SAT@ruralactionderbyshire.org.uk

Please note if you are unable to attend, and do not cancel at least 1 week before the event, we may not be able to offer your place to people on the waiting list and unfortunately we may have to charge a cancellation fee.
